

OSB QUALITY OF LIFE COMMITTEE

November 10, 2017

Stoll Berne, 12 p.m.

In attendance:

By phone: Michael Reid, Deena Anreise

In person: Michael Turner, Nadia Dahab, Kara Govro, Danielle Edwards

- Subcommittee Reports
  - Social media/publications—Deena/Danielle/Kara
    - Nothing published this year.
    - Tanya is the editor of the OAAP magazine and can likely assist with publication.
    - Deena created a share document to track information that should be posted on our group's Facebook page.
    - We don't have the login information for our group's Twitter account.
  - Work-life balance—Michelle
    - Committee has been working on a brown bag series but have had trouble identifying a location. Nadia and Kara both volunteered their office space.
    - Committee is continuing to work on content for the series.
  - Law school presentations—Mark
    - Bar prowl at Lewis & Clark was a disappointment because of low student participation.
    - Willamette panel presentation scheduled for 1/10 in Salem.
- 2018 Subcommittee Goals
  - Social media/publications: Publish in the OAAP magazine and OSB Bulletin; increase Facebook engagement.
  - Work-life balance: Institutionalize the brown bag series.
    - Nadia suggested mindfulness topic.
    - Kara/Deena suggested planning meetups/outings (hiking, etc.) and publicizing them for the new year. Kara to take the lead on the first meetup.
  - Law school presentations: Increase presence at the law schools.
- Other Business:
  - Michael would like the committee to meet more frequently and suggested we continue to do so in the coming year.
- Next meeting: Thursday, December 14, 2017

- Adjourned @ 12:31 p.m.
